SELECT BIBLIOGRAPHY OF SCOTTISH AND CONTEMPORARY POLICING

Compiled by Tim Heilbronn, Scottish Institute for Policing Research

This bibliography of 2,945 references is offered as a starting-point for identifying material which may be of value in researching Scottish policing. It attempts to list recent work which has been carried out by researchers in Scotland and/or about policing in Scotland. It also includes some papers and articles about policing elsewhere which resonate with key current themes in Scottish policing. Please note that single authors may appear after joint authors in this listing.

Omissions, additions, and updates (particularly where publications are shown as being “in press”) are very much welcomed, and should be sent to t.d.heilbronn@dundee.ac.uk.
