

UNDERSTANDING THE SCIENCE AND PROVENANCE OF HUMAN IDENTIFICATION

21ST June 2010

Houston House Hotel

Uphall, West Lothian, EH52 6JS

Directions: <http://www.macdonaldhotels.co.uk/houstounhouse/location/index.htm>

Registration	0930-1000
Morning Session – Chaired by Peter Wilson
Introductions/Outline of Programme and Purpose of Seminar	1000-1015
The Background and Key Considerations for Law Enforcement - Andy Baker, SOCA	1015-1040
The Gwent (Vietnamese case) - Paul Roberts, Forensic Services Manager, Gwent Police	1040-1110
10 minute break
The Application of the Science - Wolfram Meier-Augenstein, SCRI / University of Dundee	1120-1145
Genetic Advances in the use of DNA - Denise Syndercombe Court, QMUK & Ray Fysh, FSS	1145 -1215
Questions arising from the morning sessions	1215-1245
45 minute buffet lunch
Afternoon Session – Chaired by Nick Fyfe
Home Office Project: initial findings - Will O'Reilly, Home Office	1330-1350
Future potential for the science - Plenary	1350-1445
Areas for future research - Plenary	1445-1530
Summary/Learning Points	1530-1545
Close	1600