MSc/ PgDip Person-Centred Practice (Public Health and Wellbeing) PgCert Public Health and Wellbeing

These courses are for healthcare professionals who wish to develop their knowledge and skills in the area of public health. They will also be of interest to people working in third sector organisations.

It is possible to study single modules, a PgCert or, you can opt to progress to the MSc/ PgDip. The PCP routes place the values of person-centredness at their core and offer practitioners the opportunity to build upon their experience and develop an understanding of the knowledge and evidence that positively contributes to the health and wellbeing of persons, groups and populations.
